We also stay in contact with production companies and commissions throughout the state to share regional job opportunities.

INCOMING PRODUCTIONS

FilmToledo has worked with several local and out-of-state film productions, providing contact information and doing on-site location scouting for projects.

These projects have varied in size from $50K to $40M budgets, from independent producers to major studios.

In some cases, we coordinate with the Greater Cleveland Film Commission in order to provide assistance to these productions.

INCOMING PRODUCTIONS

FilmToledo has assisted film production companies in other ways, including sharing paid casting and crew calls for projects of all sizes.

Many films shooting regionally cast a wide net for talent and/or crew.

FilmToledo vets all projects before sharing to our website or social media accounts.

SAG-AFTRA & WGA STRIKES

Currently, all union-affiliated film productions are on hold due to the SAG-AFTRA and WGA strikes.

These strikes halted work on multiple projects that were preparing to film in Toledo and Cleveland as soon as this month.

FilmToledo continues to assist non-union productions as well as any production that has completed a SAG-AFTRA Interim Agreement.

LOCAL, REGIONAL AND STATE SUPPORT

FilmToledo has worked with area tourism agencies such as Ohio FindItHere, Destination Toledo CVB, suburban CVBs, Toledo.com and more.

Our goal is to make Toledo look more attractive to outside film production companies and obtain funding from these organizations for film events.

We maintain relationships with our existing business partners for event venues, funding and more – especially film, photo and advertising companies and organizations.

We maintain a database of “Film Friendly” businesses that are actively interested in having their properties used in film productions.

Business sponsors will be given special promotion on our website and social media accounts.

We have continued to build support from local, regional and state officials. We plan to share letters of support from local and regional politicians and use these connections to maintain support for our state tax incentive.

This requires formal recognition and support by our City government.

OHIO MOTION PICTURE TAX CREDIT UPDATE

Thanks to the support of state film commissions, government officials and members of our film industry, the Ohio Motion Picture Tax Credit was increased earlier this year.

In 2024, the Tax Credit will increase from $40M to $50M, and in 2025 from $50M to $75M. $5M of this credit goes toward Broadway theatre productions and $25M is a discretionary fund for film productions including capital improvement projects.

This credit (30% of in-state expenditures above and below the line) is awarded bi-annually to eligible film productions that spend $300,000 or more in the State of Ohio. The next application period opens on October 15th, 2023.

More information on the legislation available here.

The logo for the Ohio Department of Development is displayed on a dark red square background. It features the word "Ohio" in a large, white, serif font, with the "O" being particularly prominent. Below "Ohio", the words "Department" and "of Development" are stacked in a smaller, white, sans-serif font.

FilmToledo offers assistance to local and out-of-state production companies that wish to apply for the Ohio Motion Picture Tax Credit.

Neither FilmToledo nor the City of Toledo have any authority or responsibility to approve or reject the Tax Credit, which is administered through the Ohio Film Office.

Once administered, productions that spend money in Toledo and NW Ohio have an immediate economic impact. The film, “A Man Called Otto”, which filmed in Toledo for a single day in 2022, hired 162 local and regional background actors at a cost of approximately $28,836.

Tom Hanks also bought lunch at The Original Sub Shop on Broadway. The exact economic impact is unknown.

An untitled feature film, currently on hold, has a rental agreement with ProMedica as well as the Toledo Hilton which will bring approximately $180,000 in revenue to those two companies.

In addition to its location database, FilmToledo maintains a list of preferred vendors for hotels, caterers, equipment and facility rentals, everything from trailers to tents to Port-a-Potties. These companies see an immediate short-term benefit from incoming film productions.

Our goal is to encourage more long-term productions to work in Toledo to create greater opportunities for local vendors.

CITY SUPPORT AND INTEGRATION

Once FilmToledo is formally recognized by the City of Toledo and the Ohio Film Office, this will open up new avenues for additional sources of grant funding from the Ohio Arts Council and more.

In most cases, we work with the Arts Commission, other local organizations, sponsors and private donors to fund and support events.

WEBSITE INTEGRATION

Our website, [filmt Toledo.com](https://filmt Toledo.com), has been in operation since 2021 and serves as a one-stop resource for local and out-of-state film production companies.

Production companies and other Ohio film commissions now contact us directly for information, hire us for scouting and more.

Our goal is to streamline the contact and referral process for permits, street closures and other services that are provided by the City.

STAFF COORDINATION

As we move forward, we will need to discuss the best way to coordinate with City personnel when production companies contact us for permits, street closures, security requirements and other services that we cannot directly provide.

We can also share contact and property information as needed in order to create a more comprehensive database.

PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE

With the current industry strikes in effect, now is an ideal time move forward with the City and make plans to coordinate and grow our organization.

With formal recognition and support from the City of Toledo, FilmToledo can prepare for upcoming productions and be successful in the long term.

MOVING FORWARD

FilmToledo looks forward to a continued partnership and cooperation with the City of Toledo.

Together, we can grow our organization and bring creative and economic growth to the region.
