SHORT BIO FOR BISHOP PAT MCKINSTRY

*An extended version available upon request

Born Alpha Patricia McKinstry. She is the wife of Luther McKinstry Jr. and mother of one son Prophet Luther McKinstry III, who is the Pastor of Worship Center of Atlanta.

Bishop McKinstry's evangelism has taken her all across the United States and into international countries. Her strong apostolic and prophetic thrust display the incredible strength of the mandate upon her life. In 2019, she gracefully celebrated Kingdom service in ministry for 60 years, pastoring for 30 years and happily married for 50 years. She was elevated to the sacred office of Bishop on August 1, 2015.

Bishop McKinstry presently serves on the advisory board of the Joint College of African-American Pentecostal Bishops Congress. She is the CEO/Founder of the newly McKinstry Midwest College of Theology (MMCT), an accelerated, accredited and affordable seminary and the CEO/Founder of the Toledo Rise and Shine Academy, a K-6th grade school.

Publisher of four CDs that deals with the protocol of Prayer, Praise and Worship: The newly released in 2015 titled, "A Prayer of a Preacher for the Preacher". The second CD titled, "In the Prayer Garden with Dr. Pat". An audio series of "War Dance-Undignified Praise," and a CD of prophetic songs entitled, "It's a New Day". Included in Bishop McKinstry's list of memoirs is a book entitled "Praise Break" and in 2019, the release of an updated version entitled, "It's Time for a Praise Break".

Bishop McKinstry received her Bachelor of Theological Studies and Master of Psychology; she holds two honorary doctorate degrees, Doctor of Divinity and Doctor of Theology. On June 1, 2015, she earned a Doctoral degree in Theology.

Presently, Bishop Pat McKinstry is the Pastor of Worship Center Church in Toledo, OH.
