

DEPARTMENT OF NEIGHBORHOODS 2020 HUD ANNUAL ACTION PLAN

ROSALYN CLEMENS, DIRECTOR

BONITA BONDS, COMMISSIONER ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

MONICA BROWN, ADMINISTRATIVE ANALYST IV

JUNE 2020

DEPARTMENT OF NEIGHBORHOODS MISSION

The Department of Neighborhoods collaborates with community partners to support initiatives and programs to improve, sustain and enhance Toledo neighborhoods including housing preservation, development of affordable housing, neighborhood capacity building and code compliance.

- ▶ Division of Housing
- ▶ Division of Code Enforcement
- ▶ Division of Administrative Services
- ▶ 48 Employees

VISION FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF NEIGHBORHOODS

- ▶ Strategic design and implementation of programs that are aligned with neighborhoods needs.
- ▶ Build organizational and resource development capacity of neighborhood organizations.
- ▶ Create and maintain a staff culture of accountability, creativity and dedication to public service.
- ▶ Prompt, efficient customer service and program delivery.
- ▶ Low tolerance for neighborhood blight and debris.
- ▶ Targeting and leveraging of resources to achieve greater community development impact.

WHAT IS THE 2020-2025 CONSOLIDATED PLAN AND 2020-2021 ACTION PLAN?

2020-2025 Consolidated Plan

- ▶ Toledo receives CDBG, HOME, and ESG funds annually from HUD.
- ▶ HUD requires a five-year plan including an assessment of affordable housing, community development and market needs.
- ▶ Through community engagement and data analysis the Consolidated Plan prioritizes needs and sets goals for the utilization of federal funding.
- ▶ Consolidated Plan process also requires the review of barriers to affordable housing and the completion of an Analysis of Impediments to Fair Housing and action plan to address impediments.

2020-2021 Action Plan

- ▶ For each year of the Consolidated Plan period, HUD requires the completion of an Action Plan.
- ▶ The Action Plan identifies strategic projects and performance measures to be implemented using the community's annual allocation of HUD funding as well as residual or carryover dollars.
- ▶ Projects included in the Action Plan support needs, priority and goals identified in the Consolidated Plan.
- ▶ Changes in needs, additions of projects and funding not identified in a current Consolidated Plan or a current Action Plan requires a jurisdiction to Substantially Amend their Consolidated Plan and/or Action Plan.

2020-2025 CONSOLIDATED PLAN NEEDS AND PRIORITIES

- ▶ Public Hearing held on Tuesday, January 7, 2020
- ▶ 2020-2025 Consolidated Plan Priorities:
 - ❑ Improving Housing Affordability
 - ❑ Improving Neighborhood Conditions
 - ❑ Increase programs for Home Repair and the Preservation of Existing Affordable Housing
 - ❑ Create Jobs and Provide Access to Jobs/Skills Training
