March 29, 2012

Dennis Garvin:

I am writing to gain appointment to the Ottawa Jermain Park Advisory Board. My name is Elgin Rogers, and for the past several months, I have had the unique opportunity to interact with and witness a committed and dynamic group work towards achieving its goals. As a member of the Ottawa Park Jermain Park advisory Board's ad hoc committee, I assisted in helping to develop and establish the board's mission statement. During this process, we were able to craft and develop a mission statement that reflects the group's core values and vision for the preservation of one of Toledo's greatest community parks. Our mission statement "To preserve Toledo's greatest community Park" speaks volumes about this group's desire and dedication to maintain not only the park but its belief in raising the quality of life within the city of Toledo and its neighborhoods. During this process, it was apparent that working with my neighbors to preserve and maintain a park that I have used throughout my life is a worthy, rewarding, and necessary undertaking.

In my professional capacity as an Instructor of Political Science and as a college administrator, I share the important lessons and rewards of volunteerism and civic engagement among my students and colleagues alike. The work that the OJP advisory board currently undertakes to ensure that the park is accessible and open to all members of the community is a worthwhile and arduous task. In light of this, I believe that my professional and personal experiences are assets that could serve to support and strengthen the board as it stands. My educational experiences at Kent State University and Indiana University respectively, have aided in my ability contribute and work with community based groups and organizations.

I would like to thank the Ottawa Jermain Park Advisory Board committee for supporting my appointment to the Ottawa Jermain Park Advisory Board. I would also like to thank Mayor Bell and members of Toledo City council for their consideration of my appointment to the Ottawa Jermain Park Advisory Board.

Sincerely,

Elgin Rogers
Candidate for Ottawa Jermain Park Advisory Board
