When you have
the drive to succeed,

Carty Finkbeiner

Carty Finkbeiner was a 2015 candidate for mayor of Toledo, Ohio. Although municipal positions in Toledo are officially nonpartisan, Finkbeiner was affiliated with the Democratic Party in the 2015 election. Carty Finkbeiner lost the general election on November 3, 2015.

He previously served as mayor from 1994 to 2001 and 2006 to 2009.^[1] An effort to recall Mayor Finkbeiner began in January 2009, but failed when the Ohio Supreme Court ruled that all of the signatures were invalid because the petition forms omitted a required sentence.^[2]

Campaign themes

2015

According to the Toledo Blade, Finkbeiner said he would pave 40 miles of streets per year if elected and bring in drinking water experts to advise the city about its water supply.

“During the next two years, I intend to focus on the critical needs of our neighborhoods. They must be cleaned up and neighbors must work daily, with the city, to make that happen.”^[3]

—Carty Finkbeiner^[4]

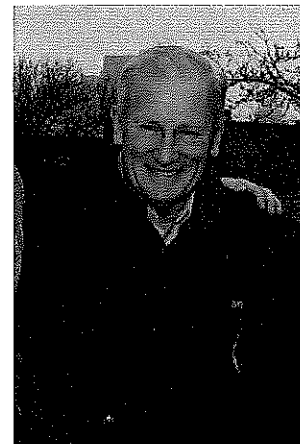

Elections

2015

See also: Toledo, Ohio municipal elections, 2015

The city of Toledo, Ohio, held elections for mayor and city council on November 3, 2015. A primary election in the city council races took place on September 15, 2015. Crystal Ellis '53, '75, '93 was the first African-American basketball player to play for the Falcons. However, legendary Coach Harlan Anderson told Ellis, "You didn't come to BG to play basketball, you came to get an education." Ellis credits those words, and Anderson's refusal to let Ellis give up on his education when his stepfather was ill, for his success as a student, educator and person. Ellis began his teaching career at Libbey High School in Toledo and quickly rose to become an assistant principal and principal in various positions before becoming the first African-American to hold the post of superintendent for Toledo Public Schools.

Our family moved to Toledo in 1959 to be near my grandparents. I graduated from Scott High School and the University of Toledo, lived out of town for six years and returned to Toledo.

As I raised children I worked and volunteered in the community. I retired in 2000 as Northwest Ohio Regional Liaison for Ohio Attorney General Betty Montgomery. In that capacity I covered Lucas county and 11 other counties for the Attorney General for eight years.

Past activities:

Lucas County Domestic Violence Task Force
The Community Partnership
Greater Toledo Safe Kids Coalition
Board of Directors of Leadership Toledo
Trinity Episcopal Church Vestry member and Junior Warden
Greater Toledo Republican Women's Club
Lucas County Republican Party
A 1992 candidate for Lucas County Clerk of Courts. Although I was not successful, I raised campaign funds and secured 48 ½ % of the votes cast.

Present activities:

Owner: Fred Treuhaft

Founded: July 1, 2016

Local entrepreneur Fred Treuhaft is a lifelong resident of NW Ohio. When he retired from Plante Moran, a major regional accounting, consulting and wealth management firm on June 30, 2016, he knew he wasn't finished making an impact on the business climate of NW Ohio. Taking not even a day off to celebrate his retirement, he got back to his entrepreneur roots and opened Treu Advisors (<http://treuadvisors.com/>), located in the offices of North Design.

Currently, Fred is the sole employee of Treu Advisors and is using his business expertise to assist with strategy, succession planning, transaction consulting and advisory services, mostly at the board level. He believes in coaching and assisting his clients to define goals and challenge them to achieve their full potential.

Fred represents his company by staying very involved in the community. He is currently treasurer of the board of the Toledo Regional Chamber of Commerce, and also sits on the UT Alumni Board, Rocket Innovations Board, College of Business Advisory Board and the Family and Closely Held Business Executive Committee. He is also the investment chair of the Toledo Jewish Community Foundation, The foundation board for The Historic Woodlawn Cemetery, and two supporting organization boards. He was also recently appointed to the Ohio Workers Compensation Board.
