WHEREAS, the world changed immensely in the past year in response to the Covid-19 pandemic and the struggles of keeping people safe while still continuing on as normally as possible; and

WHEREAS, the public and private sectors had to adapt to the changing restrictions and moved meetings from in person to both video and teleconference as a means to continue with the business of managing the everchanging world; and

WHEREAS, the pandemic highlighted the inequity of opportunity for people who are parents, caretakers, emergency contacts, or those struggling to find daycare for children or the elderly; and

WHEREAS, the ability to join via video and teleconference is also important for those struggling with access to transportation, mobility issues, depression and anxiety issues, as well as those with visual and hearing impairments; and

WHEREAS, some people want to return to normal pre-pandemic life, the past year gave us an amazing opportunity to learn and grow from a difficult situation and adapt to make our community more inclusive for all people; NOW, THEREFORE,
