- (b) The following benefits shall be made available to all part-time employees, as of January 1, 1990 on a prorated basis based on actual hours worked during the preceding year:

The eligibility for holiday pay shall depend upon the Job Sharing Agreement between the job sharers, which is approved by the Court.

(d) Newly hired part-time employees shall be probationary employees for a period of 2,080 hours. A probationary part-time employee eligible to purchase medical, prescription, dental and vision insurance benefits shall not receive any fringe benefits until they complete 480 hours of work.

(e) If a part-time employee serving the initial 2,080 hours probationary period established herein fails to work for more than 32 scheduled hours during this initial probationary period, then the employee's probationary period shall be extended by the additional number of hours the employee did not work in excess of 32.
