Revised

Amending Ordinance 25-21 Schedule A to allow for expenditure of COVID-19 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG-CV) on additionally eligible uses; and declaring an emergency.

SUMMARY & BACKGROUND:

Ordinance 25-21 authorized the acceptance, deposit, appropriation and expenditure of $1,526,505 of CDBG-CV to be used to prevent, prepare for and respond to the coronavirus COVID-19; and, submission of the 2015-2019 Consolidated Plan Substantial Amendment and the 2019-2020 Annual Action Plan Substantial Amendment submittal to HUD on February 5th 2021.

Schedule A of Ordinance 25-21 outlined that CDBG-CV funding will be used to assist homeowners with emergency mortgage assistance who have been impacted by COVID-19, as well as for the administration of the CDBG-CV program. This amendment will expand the use of CDBG-CV funds to provide for acquisition and rehabilitation of facilities including ADA accessibility upgrades, hotel/motel temporary housing assistance, and related supportive services, as outlined in the Amended Schedule A.

The financial impact of this Ordinance is to allow for the expenditure of CDBG-CV funds previously accepted, deposited and appropriated, on additional uses as outlined in the Amended Schedule A.
