2020 Third Party Inspections Reporting
Fire Department
Verdell Franklin (x3515)
(Revised)

Authorizing the mayor to enter into a service contract with Brycer LLC for third party inspection reporting for the Department of Fire and Rescue Operations, Fire Prevention Bureau; and declaring an emergency

SUMMARY & BACKGROUND:

The TFRD would like to enter into a no-cost contract with Brycer LLC for inspection reporting for the Fire Prevention Bureau. Brycer is a service provider for third party inspection reporting. The company uses a web-based service for code officials in order to track inspection, testing, and maintenance code compliance for fire protection systems, backflows and elevators. Such code compliance results in reduce false alarm activity, and provides safer communities via tracking of the inspection, testing, and maintenance process. Brycer was the sole company that responded to a formal competitive bid request for this service.

The contract will provide for collecting, organizing and categorizing third-party inspection reports, track all buildings' critical safety systems status, and determine compliance/non-compliance with the Fire Code. TFRD will gain a proactive, efficient process to review reports, track deficiencies, notify parties, and ensure compliance as the independent inspection contractors enter their reports into the web-based spreadsheet provided by Brycer. A nominal submission fee is charged per inspection report to the inspection company, however neither TFRD nor the City of Toledo will incur a charge.
