Eliminating the certain special use permit processes that make housing and other services unavailable for persons with disabilities.

SUMMARY & BACKGROUND:

Toledo City Council has become aware of certain language in the zoning code that is outdated and potentially creates a barrier to the availability of housing and other services for persons with disabilities. It is the desire of Council that the following language be reviewed by the Plan Commission in order to update the Toledo Municipal Code and remove impediments to housing and services that may exist as a result of this language.

NOW, THEREFORE, Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Toledo:

SECTION 1. Current Toledo Municipal Code Section 1116.0221 which reads as follows is hereby repealed:

1116.0221 Group Living.

Residential occupancy of a structure by other than a household, where units or quarters do not each have its own kitchen facilities. Does not include transient habitation uses.

A. Adult Family Home. A state-licensed home or facility that provides accommodations to three to five unrelated adults and supervision and personal care services to at least three of those adults. Revised Code Section 3722.01(A)(7).

B. Residential Facility, Small. A State-licensed or State-regulated home or facility that provides room and board, personal care, habilitation services, and supervision in a family setting for as many as six (or, if allowed by State law, eight) persons who require such care because of any of the following: mental retardation or a developmental disability; physical disability; age; long-term illness, including HIV; domestic violence; or being a runaway minor. Includes the following types of facilities identified under State law: residential facility, Revised Code Section 5123.19(L); community alternative home, Revised Code Section 3724.01(B); shelter for victims of domestic violence, Revised Code Section 3113.33(C); shelter for runaways, Revised Code Section 5119.64(B); and other similar uses of the same size licensed by the state but not requiring skilled nursing care.

C. Residential Facility, Large. A State-licensed or State-regulated home or facility that provides room and board, personal care, habilitation services, and supervision in a family setting for more than nine but not more than 16 persons who require such care because of any of the following: mental retardation or a developmental disability; physical disability; age; long-term illness, including HIV; domestic violence; or being a runaway minor. Includes the following types of facilities identified under State law: residential facility, Revised Code Section 5123.19(L); shelter for victims of domestic violence, Revised Code Section 3113.33(C); shelter for runaways, Revised Code Section 5119.64(B); and other similar uses of the same size licensed by the State but not requiring skilled nursing care.

D. Drug and Alcohol Residential Facility. A home or facility that provides habilitation services for persons with drug and alcohol addictions but not including methadone treatment. See also Section 1116.0229A.

E. Halfway House. A facility, typically state licensed, for the care and treatment of adult offenders. See Revised Code Sec. 2961.14(C).
(Ord. 552-11. Passed 11-29-11.)

F. Nursing Home. A State-licensed home used for the reception and care of individuals who by reason of illness or physical or mental impairment require skilled nursing care and of individuals who require personal care services. Revised Code Section 3721.01(A)(6). Also includes Residential Care Facility, Revised Code Section 3721.01(A)(7).

G. Rest Home. A home or facility that provides personal care services but not skilled nursing services to adults who reside at the facility. Includes Residential Care Facility Revised Code Section 3721.01(A)(7). A facility that conforms with the definition for Adult Foster Home, Adult Family Home, Residential Facility (Small) or Residential Facility (Large) shall be treated as such, regardless of the fact that it may also meet this definition.

H. Home for the Aging. A State-licensed home that provides services as a Residential Care Facility and a Nursing Home, except that the home provides its services only to individuals who are dependent on the services of others by reason of both age and physical or mental impairment. Revised Code Sec. 3721.01(A)(8). A facility that conforms with the definition for Residential Facility (Small) or Residential Facility (Large) shall be treated as such a Residential Facility, regardless of the fact that it may also meet this definition.

I. Group Rental. Unrelated persons who do not constitute a family or a functional family as defined in this Zoning Code, living as a single housekeeping unit in which individual sleeping quarters may be occupied by the residents of the dwelling thereof, and in which the relationship among the members of the group rests primarily upon a cost-sharing arrangement.

J. Homeless Shelter. A home or facility that provides temporary housing, with or without meals, to indigent, homeless, or transient persons. Such home or facility shall not provide lodging on a regular basis.

K. Other Group Living. Includes fraternity and sorority houses and other community-based housing not provided for elsewhere in this code.

SECTION 2. The following Toledo Municipal Code Section 1116.0221 which reads as follows is hereby enacted:

1116.0221 Group Living.

Residential occupancy of a structure by other than a household, where units or quarters do not each have its own kitchen facilities. Does not include transient habitation uses.

A. Definition of personal care services. For purposes of subsection 1116.0221, "personal care services" means services including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Assisting residents with activities of daily living;
2. Assisting residents with self-administration of medication;
3. Administration of medication, such as hypodermically or orally, and observation of the resident after receipt of the medication;

4. Preparing special diets, other than complex therapeutic diets, for residents pursuant to the instructions of a physician or a licensed dietitian, in accordance with rules adopted under section 3721.04 of the Revised Code.

"Personal care services" does not include skilled nursing care, meaning procedures that require technical skills and knowledge beyond those the untrained person possesses and that are commonly employed in providing for the physical, mental, and emotional needs of the ill or otherwise incapacitated, including but not limited to, the following:

1. Irrigations, catheterizations, application of dressings, and supervision of special diets;
2. Objective observation of changes in the patient's condition as a means of analyzing and determining the nursing care required and the need for further medical diagnosis and treatment;
3. Carrying out other treatments prescribed by the physician that involve a similar level of complexity and skill in administration.

- B. Residential Facility, Small. A home or facility where units or quarters do not each have their own kitchen facilities and that provides room and board for up to six persons, with personal care services provided to benefit the residents living in the building.
- C. Residential Facility, Moderate. A home or facility where units or quarters do not each have their own kitchen facilities and that provides room and board for up to twenty persons, with personal care services provided to benefit the residents living in the building such that there will be more significant vehicle traffic, parking, and pedestrian traffic.
- D. Residential Facility, Large. A home or facility where units or quarters do not each have their own kitchen facilities and that provides room and board for more than twenty persons, with personal care services provided to benefit all residents living in the building such that there will be more significant vehicle traffic, parking, and pedestrian traffic.
- E. Nursing Home. A State-licensed home used for the reception and care of individuals who by reason of illness or physical or mental impairment require skilled nursing care and of individuals who require personal care services. Revised Code Section 3721.01(A)(6). Also includes Residential Care Facility, Revised Code Section 3721.01(A)(7).
- F. Rest Home. A home or facility that provides personal care services but not skilled nursing services to adults who reside at the facility. Includes Residential Care Facility Revised Code Section 3721.01(A)(7). A facility that conforms with the definition for Adult Foster Home, Adult Family Home, Residential Facility, Small, Residential Facility, Moderate, or Residential Facility, Large shall be treated as such, regardless of the fact that it may also meet this definition.
- G. Home for the Aging. A State-licensed home that provides services as a Residential Care Facility and a Nursing Home, except that the home provides its services only to individuals who are dependent on the services of others by reason of both age and physical or mental impairment. Revised Code Sec. 3721.01(A)(8). A facility that conforms with the definition for Residential Facility, Small, Residential Facility, Moderate, or Residential Facility, Large shall be treated as such a Residential Facility, regardless of the fact that it may also meet this definition.
- H. Group Rental. Unrelated persons who do not constitute a family or a functional family as defined in this Zoning Code, living as a single housekeeping unit in which individual sleeping quarters may be occupied by the residents of the dwelling thereof, and in which the relationship among the members of the group rests primarily upon a cost-sharing arrangement.

- I. Homeless Shelter. A home or facility that provides temporary housing, with or without meals, to indigent, homeless, or transient persons. Such home or facility shall not provide lodging on a regular basis.
- J. Other Group Living. Includes fraternity and sorority houses and other community-based housing not provided for elsewhere in this code.
